October is Respect Life Month

During October, we will show respect for and celebration of life on several different occasions:

October 21 – Mission Sunday

Special prayers will be offered for those whose lives are in danger from natural or human caused disasters.

Farewell, Ron

Due to a scheduling conflict with his other parish commitments, Ron Barrett will no longer be able to assist at our 9:00 a.m. Sunday Mass. Ron has been a faithful organist here for more than 30 years and will continue to assist with our funerals and weddings. Thank You, Ron.

Welcome, Dan

Dan DiSanto, our 11:00 a.m. Mass organist, will also assist at our 9:00 a.m. Mass, beginning October 28, while continuing as our parish Choir Director and 11:00 a.m. Mass organist. Thank you, Dan.

Thank You!

Once again, our spaghetti dinner was a fabulous success! Special thanks to all who worked together so well in preparing, serving, and clean-up.

Special Thanks!!

To the landscaping volunteers who recently replanted our gardens on the north side of the church and manicured the prayer garden.

Stained Glass Windows

Franklin Art Glass Company has started on the replacing the stained glass frames project. This project has multiple steps as follows:

- First, Franklin takes out the existing stained glass windows to be cleaned and repaired off-site.
- Second, Franklin refits the stained glass window panes into our new aluminum oxide frame off-site.
- Third, Franklin comes on-site to remove the old steel frame and installs the new frame with repaired stained glass.
- Fourth, Franklin installs the new protective glass into the new frames.
- Finally, Franklin inspects to insure no leakage.

They are handling two windows at a time and weather conditions and scheduled weddings will dictate how much of this project can be completed before winter arrives. Again, we thank you for your patience as this project proceeds forward.

THE WORD

Today's second reading, from 2 Timothy, is an exhortation to Timothy to be faithful to his ministry at Ephesus. He was given charge of the Christian community in that important city. Paul encourages Timothy to remain faithful to his Christian instruction and also to the "sacred Scriptures, which are capable of giving you wisdom for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus" (2 Timothy 3:15).

The following verse is extremely important for the Church's teaching on biblical inspiration, the fact that God is the principal author of every book of the Bible, working with human co-authors. This text (3:16) is quoted in the Dogmatic Constitution on Divine Revelation, n.11, Vatican Council II. "Since all that the inspired authors or sacred writers assert must be considered as asserted by the Holy Spirit, one should affirm that the books of Scripture teach firmly, faithfully and without error the truth that God decided to put down in the sacred writings for our salvation's sake. Thus, 'all scripture is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, for refutation, for correction and for training in righteousness.'"

A second important teaching on inspiration is found in 2 Peter, "No prophecy ever came through human will; but rather human beings moved by the Holy Spirit spoke under the influence of God" (2 Peter 1:21). The Holy Spirit inspires every book of the Bible and gives to believers the word of God in human language.

Special Parish Dates

Mark your calendars for the following important dates for the parish:

- 1) Sunday, November 4, 2007, Remembrance Service for our parishioners who have died.
- 2) Sunday, December 9, 2007 – Deanery Reconciliation Service at 4:00 p.m. at Sts. Augustine and Gabriel.
- 3) Parish Mission – Sunday, April 20, 2008, through Tuesday, April 22, 2008.

Repair Fund Collection Results

Thank you for the generosity and support of the Repair Fund collection held last week. $800.00 was contributed.

World Mission Sunday

This Sunday, with Catholics of the world, we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. We are called to offer our prayers and financial support, through the Propagation of the Faith, to continue the mission of our Lord. By our prayers and by what we offer through the Propagation of the Faith, we support mission priests, Religious Sisters and Brothers and lay catechists as they proclaim the Gospel to the poorest of our human family, helping them come to know the great love of Jesus.

FREE FLU SHOTS

Mount Carmel Outreach Unit will be providing free flu shots to patrons 50 and over, or anyone in a high risk category. This mobile unit will be parked on Fifth Street on Tuesday, October 30, from 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

St. Charles – Open House

Sunday, November 4, at 1:00 p.m. St. Charles is having an Open House for all 8th grade boys and their parents. St. Charles, the diocese's college preparatory school for boys, is located at 2010 E. Broad Street.

Revisit Your Faith

St. Thomas More Newman Center (near OSU campus) is sponsoring a six-week information and discussion series starting on Wednesday, October 31, at 7:30 p.m. This series provides opportunities to reconnect with and renew personal faith by talking with fellow Catholics about common faith issues in a safe, non-judgmental environment. This program continues on subsequent Wednesdays: November 14, November 28, December 5, December 12 and December 19. For more information, contact Mary Ellen Thomas at 614-291-4674.

Trinity Lutheran Seminary

You are cordially invited to Choral Evensong. Trinity's 60-voice Seminary Choir will sing Hayden's Mass in Time of War. Free parking. Freewill offering. This will be held on Friday, November 2, 2007, at 8:00 p.m. For more information, call 614-235-4136.
