A PRAYER FOR MISSIONARIES

*God, our Father
creator of all the peoples of the earth,
guide and bless all those who go forth
to preach the Gospel in distant lands.
Pour out Your Holy Spirit upon them:
strengthen them in their weaknesses;
embolden them with courage in their faith;
comfort them in their trials;
guide them in their actions
to fulfill Your Divine Will that Your spirit of wisdom and love
will open the hearts of those they serve
to receive Your Word,
Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.*

Outreach to the Needy

About 15 people interested in "Outreach to the Needy" who met last Sunday at 10:00 a.m., were presented with some interesting possibilities for future directions.

We are grateful to Marilyn Daugherty from St. Andrew Parish who explained in detail the spirituality and activities of a parish St. Vincent de Paul conference. Several practical activities were suggested along with the desire to find out how our other Deanery parishes are organized.

Time constraints curtailed further dialogue but each one was asked to reflect and write down where he/she feels called to respond. A follow-up meeting will be forthcoming with notification by e-mail and bulletin.

THE WORD

God describes the people to whom Ezekiel is being sent as "hard of face and obstinate of heart" (Ezekiel 2:4). They are a people who have rebelled and revolted against God, but still God persists in sending them a prophet: this time Ezekiel, last time Jeremiah, the time before that Isaiah, all the way back to Samuel and Nathan, Elijah and Elisha. Even today, God continues to send prophets to soften our faces and make yielding our own hearts.

Jesus found hardened faces and stubborn hearts when He went to His hometown. Impenetrable seems to be the best description. His words could not get through. He was proclaiming the kingdom of God, the presence of God among them, and they couldn't hear Him. It all depended on what they saw and all they saw was a carpenter, questioning where He got such wisdom and how He did these mighty deeds. He was just the son of Mary! We know the family. Go figure.

And then we hear some of the saddest words in the Gospel: "So he was not able to perform any mighty deed there, apart from curing a few sick people by laying his hands on them"(Mark 6:5). Why? Their lack of faith.

So Jesus started a new family. It began with the people whom we have been hearing about – the disciples, for all their struggles to believe in Him right up to the very end, but also people like the woman with the hemorrhage, Jarius and his daughter, the man lowered through the roof, the fellow who had an evil spirit. The list goes on and on, down to our own day.

By Baptism, we became part of the family, the new family whose bond is not based on blood, but on faith. The ever-recurring question is: Is He able to work any signs among us, or is He amazed at our lack of faith?
