Glorious Celebration!

What a beautiful celebration of Church ministry and parish spirit we experienced on June 7th.

Deacon Dan Dury's homily inspired us all and the attractive and delicious finger food items added to the joy of the reception after each Mass.

Many thanks to Veronica Wolfe, Irene Probasco & Claire Miller for their gracious hosting and to all those who contributed their specialties.

Deacon Dan, his family, and the parish staff are most appreciative!

Kudos!

Prayerful best wishes to Tim Davis and Molly Murley, who will be married in our Parish Church Saturday, June 27th.

Outreach to the Needy

ATTENTION, all those who signed up for "Outreach to the Needy" on our ministry sheets at Pentecost!

You are invited to a follow-up meeting next Sunday at 10:00 a.m. in the Cum Christo Center. We will pool our ideas, suggestions and hopefully move into action.

A Prayer for Fathers

God our father, we give You thanks and praise for fathers young and old.

We pray for young fathers, newly embracing their vocations; May they find the courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY!

We pray for our own fathers who have supported and challenged us; May they continue to lead in strong and gentle ways.

We remember fathers around the world whose children are lost or suffering; May they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow.

We pray for men who are not fathers but still mentor and guide us with fatherly love and advice.

We remember fathers, grandfathers, and great-grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love. Amen (Our Sunday Visitor)

THE WORD

Fear of nature's power is understandable. Consider what the survivors of the Indian Ocean tsunami or of Hurricane Katrina went through, or the people who were the victims of the earthquake in China more recently. There is good reason to fear nature's destructive power. But we must look deeper, beyond the surface, at the event described in today's Gospel.

Some experienced fishermen were in that boat, yet they were terrified as it began to fill with water. At first, they let Jesus sleep, but finally, sensing that things were out of control, they awakened him, asking accusingly, "Do you not care that we are perishing?" (Mark 4:38). This statement is both an act of believing He could do something, and fear that He would not. Jesus responds to this ambivalence when He asks: "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" (4:40)

Many of us have those moments when we turn to Jesus, half believing, half disbelieving that He will take care of us. Through the centuries, people have asked, "Don't you care that we are perishing?" Don't you care that we are being threatened by all kinds of storms that can overwhelm and sink us? Don't you care that our lives are hanging by a thread? This story resonates with those moments.

As He did then, Jesus stands before us and says: "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?" Don't you see that I am with you? Don't you know I can calm the winds and quiet the sea that threatens? Do you not trust that all will be well? Perhaps the most common exhortation in scripture is: "Be not afraid." It is spoken by the angel to Mary at Nazareth, to the shepherds in Bethlehem, to the women at the tomb, and many times in between. So, be not afraid; our God is with us.
