THE WORD

Moriah means “the place of seeing.” God tells Abraham: “Take your son Isaac ...and go to the land of Moriah. There you shall offer him up as a holocaust”(Genesis 22:2). Abraham listens and obeys. He takes his son and goes to Moriah, prepares the altar of sacrifice, and lays his son upon it. As he lifts the knife, an angel grasps his arm. A ram replaces Isaac.

Isaac had asked, “Where is the sheep for the holocaust?” Abraham answered: “God himself will provide” (22:7, 8). God will see to it. In the end, God not only provides the victim; God sees “how devoted you are to [me]” (22:12). Until then, God did not know, God had not seen. Because Abraham saw God as one who would provide and trusted in God, there is blessing and new life.

Jesus also goes up a mountain, where He is transfigured, allowing His three disciples to see a glimpse of the glory to come, divinity shining through. They see Jesus with Elijah and Moses. Then a voice speaks, “This is my beloved Son. Listen to him” (Mark 9:7). Another story that requires seeing and listening. Jesus then speaks of His coming death, calling them to take up the cross and follow. Whoever hears and obeys will know blessing and new life – resurrection life.

Lent is a time to see: to see what God is calling us to, to see God at work every time we come here – in the bread and in the cup – to see Jesus as one who has given His life for us and calls us to go forth and give our lives for others.

Request from Sr. Pat

Though Lent has just begun, it is not too soon for planning the Holy Week services. I would so appreciate anyone willing to be a part of the foot washing service on Holy Thursday to let me know. This is not a podiatrist appointment but the reverent, humble reminder of Jesus’ action at the Last Supper and what He calls us to do for each other.

Easter Basket Project

Once again, the Holy Cross Young Adult Group will be putting together Easter baskets to be distributed to underprivileged children through J.O.I.N (Joint Organization for Inner-City Needs). Beginning this Sunday through Palm Sunday, containers will be available in the back of the church to collect donations for the baskets. Needed items include baskets, grass, small books, crayons, coloring books, stuffed animals, toys appropriate for preschool and elementary school-age children, plastic eggs and candy. The Young Adult Group will be assembling the baskets in the Cum Christo Center on April 5, Palm Sunday, after the 11:00 a.m. Mass. All donations and any help are much appreciated! For more information, please contact Rachel Walsh at rachelkwalsh@gmail.com or 846-3754.

Special Occasions

Any special event, celebration or newsworthy item you would like to share with our parish family in the upcoming newsletter, please let Sr. Pat know this week.
