A Prayer for Mothers

All-loving God, we give You thanks and praise for mothers young and old.

*We pray for young mothers, who give life and count toes and tend to our every need;
 May they be blessed with patience and tenderness to care for their families and themselves with great joy.*

*We pray for our own mothers who have nurtured and cared for us;
 May they continue to guide
 in strong and gentle ways.*

*We remember mothers who are separated from their children because of war, poverty, or conflict;
 May they feel the loving embrace of our God who wipes every tear away.*

*We pray for women who are not mothers
 but still love and shape us with motherly care and compassion.*

*We remember mothers, grandmothers,
 and great-grandmothers who are no longer with us,
 but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love.*

Amen.

Dan Dury – Diaconate

As we have announced, Dan Dury, our seminarian, will be ordained to the diaconate on June 6 at the Cathedral and will be here with us to preach at both Masses on Sunday, June 7.

We would like to have a simple parish family reception following both Masses and, rather than engaging a caterer, we are inviting you to bring something you like by way of finger food.

There will be a sign-up sheet at the door next Sunday with some suggestions and space for your original ideas. Give it a thought and thanks in advance.

Repair Fund Collection – Today!

A second collection will be taken for the repairs on the church and Rectory today. We thank you in advance for your continuous support of this program.

THE WORD

Hearing Jesus’ words, “I am the vine, you are the branches,” sounds comforting at first. But then comes “and my Father is the vine grower” (John 15:11). The task of the vine grower is to prune and pruning is to prune and pruning can be tricky. The danger is cutting the main vine and not the branches, or cutting the branches that carry this year’s fruit and not the old ones from last year. But Jesus tells us that it is the Father who is out there with the pruning shears, not some careless hired hand. He is cutting away the dead wood, and cutting back the good branches so they bear even more fruit.

Nevertheless, you might think, who wants to be pruned, even metaphorically? Who wants God snipping away? It’s hard to be pruned. There is a dying in that. But that is the ongoing story of Easter: dying and rising, pruning and bearing more fruit. God is there pruning us to bring out life, to make us life bearers and life givers. The Father continues snipping away, separating us from our selfishness, our self-centeredness, and all those things we hold on to that do not give us life: resentments, old grievances, desires for getting even.

God is about life, committed to an abundance of life – not just life today, but eternal life. That’s the divine plan. Are we part of it?

Update and Follow-up on Self-Study

You are invited and encouraged to come to our Town Hall Meeting next Sunday on May 17th (rescheduled from January 25th), from 2:00-4:00 p.m. in the Cum Christo Center. There will be an update on the recommendations formulated by the Deanery representatives and forwarded to the Diocese. Secondly, of vital importance, is the beginning work on the Recommendations unique to our parish which surfaced at Our Self-Study meeting in June 2008, such as: (Sacramental) Liturgy Committee, (Strategic) Parish Council and Communications Outreach/Service and (Sustaining) Stewardship.

Please plan to attend, bringing your interest, ideas, and commitment to our parish. We are hoping for the same or better attendance as we enjoyed at the June meeting. We will again share pizza following the meeting.

Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC)

Next week’s 2nd collection supports the Catholic Communication Campaign. Your generous gift helps CCC and our diocese to provide television, radio and print materials that spread the Good News of Christ’s abiding love for each and every one of us. For program information, visit www.CatholicCommunicationCampaign.org.

Capital Campaign Update – Year Three

Fr. Jerry’s kick-off mailing was sent out last week. If you did not receive your letter in the mail, please contact the office at 614-224-3416.
