Sympathy and Prayers

Sheila Shirey, parishioner, died last week. Please keep her, Joe (husband) and family members in your prayers.

Thank You!!

Once again, our Spaghetti Dinner was a fabulous success! Thanks to all who worked together so well in preparing, serving and cleaning up, and special kudos to the Friday morning meatball and sauce crew.

Support to St. Lawrence Haven –
November 8th

The next opportunity to make “Lil Larry” sandwiches in support of St. Lawrence Haven is following the 9:00 a.m. Mass on November 8th, in the Cum Christo Center.

FLU !!!

Due to the national H1N1 emergency, we have temporarily discontinued the optional handshake sign of peace and Communion from the cup during both Sunday and Weekday Masses. We will continue this precautionary measure until the virus season is over. Please pray for the sick and their caregivers.

Prayer for All Saints Day

All you holy saints of God, we join our prayers of praise to yours this day. With you, we sing of God’s goodness, rejoice in God’s mercy and celebrate God’s incredible love. Teach us to live as you lived – always thinking of others, always recognizing our weakness, always rejoicing in God’s gifts, always closely following Jesus. Blessed are you, happy are you, all you holy saints of God. Pray for us that someday we, too, may be among God’s holy ones. Amen.

Christmas Newsletter

On Sunday, November 1, we will be placing index cards in the pews and asking you to share a brief Christmas memory or tradition that we will publish in our Christmas Newsletter. This can be either religious or secular. Just jot down a couple of sentences or a paragraph and either drop it off at the Rectory or in the November 8th collection basket.

Keeping Kids Catholic

St. Patrick Church, 280 N. Grant Ave, Columbus, is hosting a “Dinner with Marcus Grodi” on Saturday, November 14, 2009 in its Patrick Hall starting with sit-down dinner at 6:30 p.m. followed by presentation at 7:30 p.m. The cost is $20.00 per person. For more information, contact Marian Hyden at 614-563-5280 or e-mail her at kmhyden@sbcglobal.net.

THE WORD

Try this. Draw three circles, each within the other – make them large, not tiny; then put a dot in the middle of the innermost circle. Write on the border of innermost circle the names of those who have handed on the faith to you, who taught you what it means to live your faith. These are the people we have known during our life.

Along the outermost circle record the names of the biblical people who have had an impact on your life – the women and men of the Old and New Testaments, of course, but also the authors of any books of the Bible that have had an impact on you. Finally, around the edge of the middle circle, write the names of anyone in the intervening two thousand years who has influenced you as a believer – saints with a capital “S” and a small “s”. This is your own personal “cloud of witnesses” spoken of in the letter to the Hebrews (12:1), who have surrounded you during your life, praying for you and urging you on to live more fully in Christ.

The circles are actually much larger in reality, but these are the ones who have taught us to be poor in spirit, to mourn injustices in the world, to be meek and merciful, pure of heart and peacemakers. They have embodied what it means to hunger and thirst for justice and to be willing to undergo suffering for the sake of our faith. How impoverished our lives would be without them. Today is a day to say thank you to God for all these men and women and for sending us Jesus, our “leader and perfecter of faith” (12:2), who continues to draw us into the life shared by the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
