Sympathy and Prayers

Hildreth Holmer, grandmother of parishioners Stacy Mayer and Shawna Streeter, died last week. Please keep her and her family members in your prayers.

Welcome!

- Madison Elizabeth, daughter of Scott Hield and Stacey Sable was baptized last Saturday, November 14th.
- Isobel Julienne, daughter of Jordan and Jessica Schweller, was baptized last Sunday, November 15th.

Kudos!

Congratulations to Ron Kowalski who was elected president of the Resident Council at Jaycee Arms.

Special Prayer of Blessings

Loving and Good God, You have blessed us in many ways – in the beauty of our land, in the freedom we enjoy in the care of those who love us and the grace to believe in You.

We pray that we may ever be grateful for these blessings and continue to show our gratitude in action.

We bring this food, the fruit of our sharing, asking that you bless it. May it provide nourishment and joy to our sisters and brothers who will receive it.

We pray in Jesus’ name. AMEN

Advent and Christmas

Music Preparation

Choir practice will begin today following the 11:00 a.m. Mass in preparation for Advent and Christmas. All those interested in singing are invited to join us as we meet in the balcony to rehearse music for the Nativity of our Lord for approximately one hour. We will also be learning a new Mass setting, Missa Emmanuel, for the season of Advent and will spend time learning that in order to properly lead the congregation. Please know that all are welcome each Sunday around 12:00 noon, starting November 22nd through December 20th, as we meet to prepare our voices and our hearts for the coming of our Savior’s birth. Please contact Kelly Doman, choir director (keladom@insight.rr.com or 920-4443), if you would like to participate or if you have any other questions.

THE WORD

Political power meets spiritual power in today’s conversation between Jesus and Pilate. “Are you the King of the Jews?” Pilate asks Jesus (John 18:33). Pilate is concerned about whether Jesus is a threat to Roman rule, just as the Jewish leaders see Jesus as a threat to their authority. Jesus is thus either guilty of fomenting insurrection as a militant messiah or of speaking blasphemy by presenting himself as one who inaugurates the reign of God.

Jesus, however, speaks not about himself as a king but about a kingdom that “does not belong to this world.” This kingdom may not be of this world but it is in this world. God’s kingdom is present in Jesus as one who comes to bear witness to the truth. And what is the truth? That “God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him not perish but might have eternal life (John 3:16).

Jesus is the Word become flesh who made his dwelling among us, so that we might see his glory, “the glory of the Father’s only Son, full of grace and truth” (John 1:14). The hour of glory was the hour of the cross, the hour not of political power, but God’s power shining through human weakness, bringing light into the darkness, revealing self-sacrificing love so that we might have life.

Political power tends to be an upward climb into dominance and authority that must be protected at all costs. It frequently leads to isolation and abuse, to clinging to power as its own end. Spiritual power is having the strength to trust God and surrender so that God can reign, not by conquest or political alliances, but through human weakness and surrender to God.

Campaign for Human Development – Today!

These days it is not hard to imagine having to choose between rent or health care, food or transportation, household bills or clothing for your children. For many Americans, these choices are forced by a recent layoff, pay freeze, or retirement fund decrease. For 37 million Americans who live below the poverty line, the options are only diminishing. The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) makes a difference in low-income communities by funding programs that address the root causes of poverty. More than ever, CCHD needs your support in today’s collection. Thank you for your generosity.

Mission of Love

As Mother Teresa said: “Each person’s mission is a mission of love. Begin where you are, with the people closest to you.” The diocesan Marriage and Family Life Office encourages you to be mindful of the precious gift of “Family” as you gather in celebration with extended family for Thanksgiving as well as during your everyday moments together.

Catholic Veterans Meet – December 1st
