Support to St. Lawrence Haven – Today!

Attention, all our “Lil Larry” sandwich makers. This is our day to support St. Lawrence Haven, following the 9:00 a.m. Mass at the Cum Christo Center.

Sympathy and Prayers

Tracy Frank, sister of Toni O’Reilly, passed away last week. Keep her and her family in your prayers.

Farewell for Sr. Pat (Sunday, August 8th)

After Both Masses

If anyone would like to contribute refreshments, please contact Claire Miller at 614-593-5349.

Latin America Collection – Today!

The Church in this region is undergoing a great continental mission, intended to strengthen the faith of the people and to create leaders in their own lands. The Church is being weakened by the loss of its members because of economic migration, and it suffers from a low priest-to-parishioner ratio. Today’s Collection funds catechesis and formation programs, evangelization, religious training, and other pastoral programs designed to strengthen and renew the faith. For the cost of your morning coffee, you could buy a child her First Holy Communion book. Please be generous in today’s Collection.

Sunday School Picnic – August 18

Holy Cross Sunday School is holding its annual family picnic at the Meadows Picnic Area in Blacklick Woods Metro Park on Wednesday, August 18, from 6:00-8:00 p.m. Bring a favorite summer dish to share and join in the fun! To RSVP, contact Debi Matthews at matthews9244@sbcglobal.net or call at 614-861-1746.

PARISH NEWSNOTES –WE NEED ‘EM

As we get ready to put together our September issue of Connections, we ask that you contribute to the “Newsnotes” section.

- Tell us about students going off to college or a new high school.
- Tell us about new births, vacations and the fish that got away.

Drop off your newsnotes at the office, or e-mail to jack@photoj.com.

THE WORD

At some point in their development, children go through the “me” phase. Everything is about “me.” This is when “No” becomes a frequent word in their vocabulary. Sometimes the “me” phase extends into adulthood, with everything continuing to be about “me, me, me.”

Take the man in the parable. His inner dialogue is all about “me.” “What shall I do?” he asks himself in the face of a plentiful harvest. Then we hear his thoughts: “This is what I shall do,” since I don’t have space. “I shall tear down my barns and build ...I shall store all my grain.... I shall say to myself” (Luke 12:17, 18), and so on. The only time “you” enters into the conversation is when he is talking to himself.

Jesus tells this story to a man who wants Jesus to advise his brother to share an inheritance with him. Another “me” person, Jesus’ warning to the man and those standing around is to guard against greed, that life is not about things. Qoheleth, too, warns about being preoccupied with all that is passing.

The author of Colossians calls us to “seek what is above” (Colossians 3:1), attend to what lasts, put on Christ, live in intimacy with the Father as Jesus did. Be a “we” person, rather than a “me” person. When we gather for Mass on Sunday, we come together as a “we” people. We say or sing together the great hymn of Glory to God in the Highest; we profess our faith as a community; we pray “Our Father.” It’s about We, not Me.

ATTN: Extraordinary Ministers of Eucharist

Mount Carmel West Chaplaincy Services (located at 793 West State Street) is seeking individuals to serve in the capacity as volunteer Extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist. Interested individuals must be commissioned and approved for this ministry in their parish. Training will be provided. Further information can be obtained by contacting Cara Ranft, System Director of Volunteers, at (614) 234-1222.

Hospice Volunteers Needed

Mount Carmel Hospice is looking for people who have kind hearts and a willingness to serve their communities in various settings:

- If you have a genuine desire to support people with life-limiting illness and their families, if you can offer kindness and assurance, if you are able to listen with sensitivity and respect, Mount Carmel Hospice is looking for you to join their volunteer program as a visitation volunteer.
- A special opportunity is available to work as a volunteer greeter at the Hospice Office building.
- Opportunities are available for those wishing to share hobbies and musical talents with Hospice patients.

Please call Betsy at 234-0264 for more information about upcoming orientation and training classes.
