Dear Parishioners,

Many of you received, we're sure, as did we, numerous expressions of awe, gratitude and appreciation for our beautiful parish event honoring Fr. Dan last Sunday.

The family spirit of hospitality, generosity and adaptability was everywhere in evidence. Naming those who helped would fill the bulletin but a very special "thank you" is due to Veronica Wolfe and Jack Balogh for the overall planning and attention to innumerable details.

Sincere thanks to each and all and let us continue to pray for Fr. Dan and each other.

Sympathy and Prayers

Michael Sheline, grandson of Mary Jane and Clyde Sheline and great-nephew of Fran Klausman and Patty Stover, passed away last week. Keep him and his family in your prayers.

Kudos!

Prayerful best wishes to Christopher Lawson and Melissa Ruppert, who will be married in our Parish Church Saturday, June 12.

Support to St. Lawrence Haven – June 20

Attention, all our "Lil Larry" sandwich makers. The next opportunity to support St. Lawrence Haven is Sunday, June 20th following the 9:00 a.m. Mass at the Cum Christo Center.

Bishop's Annual Appeal

BAA Campaign for 2010 is off with a great start after 5 weeks. The committee has received a total of 50 pledges for $ 22,845.00, which is 159% of our 2010 goal of $14,346.00. Since we have reached our goal, every dollar pledged and paid over goal comes back directly to the parish. We encourage everyone – parishioners and regular visitors – to make a pledge no matter what the size of your gift. Thank you!

Catholic Home Missions

Today's second collection supports the missions here in the United States. There are many places in America – Appalachia, the Deep South, the Southwest, the Rocky Mountain states, Puerto Rico, and the island dioceses in the Pacific and Caribbean – where the Catholic Church struggles just to keep parishes open and to educate children in faith. Please give generously to assist fellow Catholics in America.

+ Please remember in your prayers our homebound parishioners, and those who are ill: Mary Bonner, Mary Cordesco, Sara Fingerlin, Marianne Garrison, Bobby Hackett, Mary Kay Keefer, Mary Knapp, Ellen McMillen, Mary McNellis, Cathy Miller, Rita Neff, Marilyn Scott, Joe Shirey, Helen Violet, Elizabeth Wanamaker.

THANKS!

THE WORD

I came across a little book not too long ago that offered a selection of “B and Bs” (“Bed and Breakfast” residences) where travelers could stay in a certain state. The promise of a good “B and B” is a clean place, a good night’s sleep, and a good meal to begin the day. In short, rest and sustenance.

Is it too irreverent to propose that today’s feast is a reminder that we believers have available the “B and B” of all “B and Bs” in the Eucharist? This sacrament of the Body and Blood of Christ offers an ongoing opportunity for rest and sustenance with the Lord.

Today’s scriptures all deal with offering sustenance, beginning with Melchizedek presenting Abraham a little bread and wine along with a blessing. Then there is Paul reminding the fractious Corinthians how eating the bread and wine sustains them as they proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes. Finally, Jesus provides rest and sustenance for his disciples, along with five thousand others who show up.

My late stepfather worked off a truck, checking gas meters and doing repairs for the Baltimore Gas and Electric Company. He used to stop in church and have his lunch there. He said it provided him a chance to talk to the Lord and rest for a few moments in the Lord’s presence. It sustained him over the years. Again, rest and sustenance.

God’s ongoing hospitality in the Eucharist has continued over generations to offer rest and sustenance. What could be better than having the Lord coming to dwell within us, giving us the nourishment necessary to sustain us on our journey?
