Dear Father Dan,

On this special day of your first Mass with us here at Holy Cross, we hear the words of Vatican Council II:

“The task of priests as heralds of the Gospel and pastors of the Church is the attainment of the spiritual growth of the Body of Christ.”

And so, as we honor your generosity in saying “YES” to God’s call, we also pray for your fidelity, deep spirituality and faithful service in all the years of your priestly life.

Kudos!

Prayerful best wishes to Mark Stetson and Nicole Begy, who will be married in our Parish Church on Saturday, June 5.

THE WORD

Call to mind – or “Google,” if you have access to the Internet – the famous ceiling painting of creation by Michelangelo in the Vatican’s Sistine Chapel. God the Creator’s right hand is extended to touch the fingers of the first human creature, Adam. Often forgotten or overlooked are the other figures there. Besides a dozen infant angels, you can find a beautiful woman in the crook of the Creator’s left arm. That is Wisdom, who speaks to us in our first reading today.

Proverbs tells us that at the dawn of creation, when all was being marked out, made firm, and fixed fast, Wisdom was in on the act. When the Creator set the limits of the sea and the borders of the sky and the firmament, she was there, beside God as God’s craftsperson, delighting God, playing before God all the while, playing on the surface of the earth (see Proverbs 8:30-31). Then those wonderful words: “... and I found delight in the human race” (8:31).

The Creator loved the world and all of creation from the beginning, so much that in the fullness of time, God’s only Son was sent by God to redeem us, and then the Holy Spirit was sent to dwell within us. Into the life of this Trinity, we were baptized in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Today’s feast calls us to joy because our living God continues to lead us to the truth of who God is, and to pour the love that is the very life of the Trinity into our own hearts, enabling us to love as God loves.

Special Parish Dates

Mark your calendars for the following important dates for the parish:

1) Sunday, June 6, 2010 – Parish Town meeting in the church following both the 9:00 & 11:00 a.m. Masses.

Parish Town Meeting – June 6th

As a follow-up to the Parish Self-Study last year, a small committee was formed to review how parish councils were organized. On Sunday, June 6, after each Mass in the church, from 10:00 to 10:30 a.m. and 12:00 to 12:30 p.m., we want to update you on our progress. Thank you!

Catholic Home Mission – June 6th

Next week’s second collection supports the missions here in the United States. There are many places in America – Appalachia, the Deep South, the Southwest, the Rocky Mountain states, Puerto Rico, and the island dioceses in the Pacific and Caribbean – where the Catholic Church struggles just to keep parishes open and to educate children in faith. Please plan to give generously to assist fellow Catholics in America.

Senior Citizens Day Celebration is June 9

The 33rd annual diocesan Senior Citizens Celebration will be held on Wednesday, June 9, 2010, at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish, 600 Hill Road North, Pickerington. Bishop Campbell will celebrate Mass at 10:30 a.m. Mass will be followed by a luncheon. Registration fee for lunch is $15.00. To register, please send your check payable to the Office for Social Concerns, Catholic Diocese of Columbus, 197 E. Gay Street, Columbus, Ohio 43215, or call (614) 241-2540.
