Join with us at noon (following the 11:00 a.m. Mass) on Sundays, November 28, December 5, December 12 and December 19 in the balcony. We will spend about an hour each week learning some beautiful music for the 4:00 p.m. Christmas Eve Mass. ## THE WORD

When we think of Christ the King, we usually do not think of Jesus hanging on the cross, but rather the risen Christ, seated at the right hand of the Father, wearing the crown bestowed upon Him by the Father. But Luke presents us with an image of Christ whose reign begins on the cross with His promise of Paradise to a thief hanging at His side.

Jesus brings about the kingdom even in the last moment of his life, extending the mercy of God to yet another nameless outsider, a thief “condemned justly” to death (Luke 23:41). This man recognizes Jesus both as a man who “has done nothing criminal,” but also one who is about to “come into {his} kingdom” (23:41, 42).

The kingdom of God that Jesus proclaimed as being “already in your midst” is present in Jesus on the cross, extending mercy by asking God to forgive those who have crucified him, for “they know not what they do” (23:34). To the thief who asks Jesus to remember him when he comes into His kingdom, Jesus promises “Today you will be with me in Paradise” (23:43). What wonderful words to bring the church year to a close.

We might think of this dying thief as one who stole heaven at the last moment, but perhaps that is inaccurate. How could it be a theft when Paradise was there for the taking? The crucified One himself, being the king of hearts, the shepherd king lifted up one last time a beloved sheep who had wandered far astray but unexpectedly found himself at heaven’s door. If we call him king, it is because he was faithful to his calling, not to save himself but to save us.

Campaign for Human Development – Today!

These days it is not hard to imagine having to choose between rent or health care, food or transportation, household bills or clothing for your children. For many Americans, these choices are forced by a recent layoff, pay freeze, or retirement fund decrease. For 37 million Americans who live below the poverty line, the options are only diminishing. The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) makes a difference in low-income communities by funding programs that address the root causes of poverty. More than ever, CCHD needs your support in today’s Collection. Thank you for your generosity!
