THANKSGIVING BASKETS

It is that time of year when we are mindful of all the blessings in our lives and want to express our gratitude in a concrete way. In the past, through the generosity of Holy Cross parishioners, several Thanksgiving Baskets have been filled and distributed to needy families, so once again we are calling on you to contribute items such as laundry baskets, canned goods, and grocery gift certificates. In the back of church, there will be lists of the needed items. Please sign up for what you can bring. The baskets will be picked up after the 11:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday, November 21st, to be distributed to those in need. Please give Sister Anne any gift certificates you might be donating. Thank you!

THE WORD

It's not that the Pharisee's prayer is a bad prayer. It starts out well: "O God, I thank you . . ." Gratitude is good. But then it gets into boasting: "I am not like the rest of humanity . . . I fast . . . I pay tithes"(Luke 18:11, 12). It's a Little Jack Horner prayer. Remember the old nursery rhyme that ends with Jack saying, "What a good boy am I!"? The Pharisee's prayer is all about him and what he does, all the while gauging the distance between himself and the rest of humankind.

In contrast, the tax collector "stood off at a distance" with bowed head, beating his breast and saying, "O God, be merciful to me a sinner"(18:13). He knows who he is and who God is, what God alone can do for him. No repetitive "I," no swelling ego there, just a repentant figure, one who asks to receive what only God can give: mercy.

Jesus tells this story "to those who were convinced of their own righteousness and despised everyone else" (18:9). How do we hear it? It acknowledges God who makes us "just," that is, who helps us to be in proper relationship with God, with each other, and with all creation.

Sirach reminds us that our just God hears the cry of the oppressed, the wail of the orphan, the complaint of the widow, the petition of those who served God willingly, and the prayer of the lowly. These folk allow room for God to enter their minds and hearts, and then all kind of things can begin to happen, both within and all around them.
