THE WORD

In a country that has a strong commitment to separation of Church and state, it is noteworthy that our money, both bills and coin, is inscribed with the words “In God We Trust.” The history of this motto and its relation to our currency goes back to the Civil War. Changing it has never gotten much support. It serves as a helpful reminder about where our true security lies.

In the Gospel, the Pharisees, along with some supporters of the Roman regime called Herodians, get into the act of trying to trap Jesus into taking a stand that would get Him in trouble with either the Roman authorities or His own people. But Jesus, as much the fox as Herod was reported to be, slips out of their net by noting that there can be different loyalties without a loss of priorities.

Jesus calls on them to produce the idolatrous coin that no devout Jew should carry, since it declared Caesar to be a god. Then He advises them to return to the emperor the coin that bears his image but to return to God what bears God’s image, that is, themselves, made in the image of God.

A new order is revealed when we give God’s image back to God by our words and deeds, showing God’s image to others. When this happens, the motto “In God We Trust” becomes not merely stamped on paper or branded on copper, but encountered in living flesh and blood.

Special Parish Dates

Mark your calendars for the following important dates for the parish:

- 1) Sunday, November 6, 2011 – New Roman Missal presentation by Fr. Jan Sullivan, from 12:00 Noon, in the Cum Christo Center.

World Mission Sunday – October 23

Next week, with Catholics of the world, we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. We are called to offer our prayers and financial support, through the Propagation of the Faith, to continue the mission of our Lord. By our prayers and by what we offer through the Propagation of the Faith, we support mission priests, Religious Sisters and Brothers and lay catechists as they proclaim the Gospel to the poorest of our human family, helping them come to know the great love of Jesus.

Focolare Magazine Sale – Today!!

After all Masses today, members of the Focolare Movement will be offering single issues of their magazine, Living City, at $3.00 per copy at the back and side door of the church. The Focolare Movement is one of the ecclesial movements within the Catholic Church that was approved by Pope John XXIII in 1962. Living City magazine is one of the ways of sharing the Movement’s spirituality of unity.

Baptism Preparation

There will be a Baptism Preparation Class for new and/or expectant parents who are planning the Baptism of their child. This class will meet on Sunday, October 30, 2011, in the Rectory Parish Office. We will gather at 12:00 noon right after the 11:00 a.m. Mass.

To register for this class, please call either Fr. Jerry or Sr. Anne at 224-3416 or e-mail frjerry@columbus.rr.com or sranne@columbus.rr.com. Thank you.
