Revisions in the Roman Missal

Starting several weeks ago, and concluding on Sunday, October 30th, you will find inserts in our bulletin explaining revisions in the Mass texts, the reasons for the changes, explanations of the new words and why there is an emphasis on the scriptural roots of our prayers at Mass. Please take these home and study them and enjoy!

World Mission Sunday – Today

We are called to this Eucharistic celebration along with Catholics in every parish, chapel and church throughout the world — to recommit ourselves to the missionary task, telling, as the prophet Isaiah says in today’s first reading, “God’s glory among the nations.”

Let us pray at this Mass for all who long to hear the hope-filled message of Jesus’ love and salvation. Let us offer generous financial help to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in support of more than 1,150 local churches throughout Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands and remote regions of Latin America.

Lecture – Josephinum – Today!

The 7th season of the Josephinum’s Building Spiritual Bridges to the Community lecture series begins today. Monsignor John E. Kozar, President of the Catholic Near East Welfare Association and President of the Pontifical Mission for Palestine, will present “The New Evangelization and the Mission Ad Gentes” at 7:00 p.m. in the Jessing Center. The event is free of charge and open to the public; reservations not required. Please call 614-985-2497 for more information.

THE WORD

In an article on “successful aging” (New Theology Review, November, 2010), Dr. Lawrence M. Lenoir proposes that the art of giving and receiving love is at the heart of growing old gracefully. Research shows that being in a loving relationship quiets the demons of depression and despair. So, if you want to be healthy, be loving. Jesus would agree.

The rabbis of Jesus’ day argued about which was the greatest commandment of the six hundred thirteen in the Torah. When the Pharisees asked Jesus, He answered that what God wanted most from the chosen people who had been liberated from slavery and called to live in a conventional relationship was a return of the love God showed to them. This love has two faces: loving God totally and loving one another as one loves oneself.

Loving is a contagious activity. If you are loved, you tend to be loving. Paul is sounding this note when he writes to the Thessalonians about how they became imitators of him and his fellow evangelizers Timothy and Sivanus, and of the Lord Himself, receiving the word and living in faith, joy, and love for each other, because they believed in God’s love for them, revealed in Christ.

Our love must flow outward in compassionate generosity. The Lord called on Israel to show its love by not oppressing aliens, not wronging weak orphans and defenseless widows, and not extorting the poor by demanding interest on loans. No less is asked of those who have received the Holy Spirit and live in community with the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. That’s us. Love one another.
