Holy Cross Policy for Parental Observation

Holy Cross supports the Diocesan Safe Environment Program. It is the goal of Holy Cross Church to make our physical environment a place of safety: A place of prayer, ministry and comfort. Everyone who enters our facilities must be confident in this. In order to assure the safety of our children and young people, Holy Cross has enacted the following standard practice on Parental Observation:

1. Parents are encouraged to observe their children attending Sunday Morning Faith Formation Classes.
2. Parents are encouraged to attend the various liturgies when their children function as altar servers or cantor.

THE WORD

Recognizing Jesus as the risen Lord seems to have been something of a problem. Mary Magdalene didn't; she thought He was the gardener. The disciples on the road to Emmaus didn't; they took Him for a stranger who had heard nothing about the recent events in Jerusalem. And even in today's Gospel, the apostles thought He was a ghost.

It is instructive to note how Jesus reveals Himself in each case. To Mary Magdalene, He simply says her name, "Mary." The two disciples on the road get an instruction on how all these recent events in Jerusalem fulfill the Scriptures. And today the apostles are shown His hands and feet, watch Him eat, and again, have their minds opened to the meaning of the Scriptures. In all cases, Jesus' words play an important role.

How we come to know the risen lord runs along the same lines. We come to know Him through the word of God. He calls us to be disciples, to be friends, to be children of the Father through the Scriptures. We come to the table of the Lord each week, where our minds and hearts can be opened.

We recognize Him in the breaking of the bread, both the bread of the Eucharist and the bread of God's word. Some preparation on our part can be helpful. By spending some time with the coming Sunday's readings during the week, we are more likely to have God's word penetrate our hearts when we gather to listen together to the Scriptures and the preaching.
