THE WORD

Job’s words remind us how weariness, heaviness of heart, sadness, can sweep over us at times and lodge bone-deep. All of our work seems little more than “drudgery.” Sometimes these feelings are inexplicable; at other times the loss of a loved one, a sudden change in our lives, the discovery of a serious illness can be the cause.

This second half of a day in the life of Jesus shows us His response to those things that weigh people down, whether it is an illness afflicting the loved one of a disciple, or strangers who were ill or possessed by demons. Jesus responds to those brought before Him, curing and driving out many demons. He is the compassion of God present to the people who come to Him.

Jesus obviously spent the whole day meeting the needs of the people, long into the evening. Then, perhaps He sat up with Simon and Andrew, James and John, talking with them about what had happened, listening to how this coming of the kingdom of God into their world was affecting them. Then He slept.

We are told that He woke early and went off to a deserted place to pray. This must be how He got the strength to go into another day. As Simon says, “Everyone is looking for you”– whether to thank Him or ask for one more favor we don’t know. But Jesus says it is time to move on, to preach and free others from demons.
