Landings: Welcoming Inactive Catholics

Landings, a ministry of the Paulist Fathers and St. Thomas More Newman Center’s Reconciliation Team, is an eight-week program geared toward welcoming returning and inactive Catholics. In this program a group of active Catholics, some of whom are “returnees” themselves, join with participants to share and explore their faith together. A new session of Landings will begin Tuesday, January 10 at the Newman Center, 64 W. Lane Avenue, Columbus. For more information, please contact Ed Orazen at (614) 313-7801.

THE WORD

“If there weren’t any Wise Men, there should have been,” a spiritual mentor once told me. This was at a time when a story’s truth was equated with its being factual. The story of the Wise Men is true, whether it is factual in its details or not. From the beginning of time, there have been those who have been searching for “truth” or “light” or other divine signals. This journey often begins when something in our world catches the attention of those looking up or out from themselves, glimpsing a “star” beckoning.

The truth behind the story of the Wise Men affirms that God sends out signals for searchers to pick up on and move further down the road that will take them to God. Sometimes we might get lost for a while, our internal GPS ceasing to function because we have made a sudden turn or gone past a suggested turn-off. But, then, in a moment of grace, we hear a welcome “recalculating,” and we are off on our way once again.

Even when “darkness covers the earth and thick clouds cover the peoples,” the One we are searching for is present, and will not let us go off the trail completely-- at least not for long, and eventually, in “God’s good time,” we will find our way. The light will return and the Lord’s glory will shine upon all seekers and searchers – even some not much interested in seeking or searching. These, especially, are the ones the Son of Man came to save.

- 2) Wednesday, February 22, 2012 – Ash Wednesday – Mass at 11:30 a.m.

Training Session

We need to “build up” our roster of Eucharistic Ministers and Lectors, so if you are interested in serving in either of these roles we have just the meeting for you! Mark your calendars for a training session on Tuesday, January 10, 2012, 6:00 pm. and/or 7:00 p.m. Please contact Sr. Anne at the Rectory Office at 614-224-3416.

Join in the worldwide mission of Jesus!

The 2nd collection next week, January 15, will be for the Propagation of the Faith. Through the Propagation of the Faith, we can reach those at work at “the end of the earth” as we help to support the Church’s evangelizing work in more than 1,150 mission dioceses worldwide. Thank you for your generosity.

St. Gabriel Radio

Fr. David Schalk, pastor – Christ the King, shares his spiritual journey to priesthood on St. Gabriel Catholic Radio AM 820’s new program, Answering The Call with host Elizabeth Ficocelli. Tune in Sunday, January 8th, at 4:00 p.m.

Newman Center – OSU

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity – On Friday, January 20, at 7:30 p.m. Fr. Thomas Ryan, C.S.P., Director of the Paulist North American Office for Ecumenical and Interfaith Relations, will speak at the St. Thomas More Newman Center (64 W. Lane Avenue, Columbus), on The Call to Unity Among the Followers of Jesus: What Can I Do? For over 25 years, Fr. Ryan has ministered in the ecumenical movement. Open to all people of faith, we will look at two key grassroots approaches:

Spiritual Ecumenism – conversion of heart and holiness of life along with public and private prayer for unity
 Receptive Ecumenism – coming to a positive appreciation for the presence and action of God in the people, practices, structures and processes of another tradition of Christian faith and taking responsibility for our own community’s learning
