Bishop’s Annual Appeal Update

BAA Campaign for 2012 is doing well. The committee has received 58 pledges for $27,883.00 which is 172% of our 2012 goal, and received payments over our 2012 goal of $16,154.00. Since we have reached our goal, every $ pledged and paid comes back directly to the parish to pay off our “new” organ installation. We hope every family and guest will make a pledge – no gift is too small.

THE WORD

I can remember becoming “blood brothers” with my best friend, Bunky, when we were six years old. We took something sharp and each of us cut the tip of one finger and put them together, declaring ourselves “blood brothers forever.” It remains a sacred memory for me.

The recognition of blood as sacred, as a symbol of life, is probably as old as humanity. All life belonged to God. When Cain slew Abel, God said to him, “Your brother’s blood cries out to me from the soil” (Genesis 4:10). It was the blood of animals that Moses sprinkled on the altar and the twelve pillars, symbols of God and the people, and then on the people themselves as they entered into covenant with the God who was leading them to a new life.

Today’s second reading presents Christ entering the heavenly sanctuary not with the blood of animals but with his own blood that brought about our redemption, providing cleansing from sin and access to God. Later, this author notes how much more eloquently the blood of Christ speaks than that of Abel; where the latter cried for vengeance, Christ’s blood cries for mercy.

Mark puts us in the upper room with Jesus the night before he died, and we hear once again the sacred words: “This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many.”

He continues to give the cup to his disciples, so we might have his life in us. Jesus is the Lord of Life.
