Newsletter Request

It’s hard to believe that it’s not even Halloween and here we are talking about Christmas, but it takes time to put our CONNECTIONS newsletter together, so that’s why we’re reaching out now for your input.

This year, we decided that a great way to share our holiday love is through food, so we’re asking you chefs to share your special Christmas recipe for cookies or other festive foods.

Please jot down your recipe and either drop it off at the Rectory or e-mail it to jack@photoj.com.

Our deadline for the recipes is November 16th, so don’t delay. We are looking forward to testing and tasting your special Christmas goodies.

Repair Fund Collection Results

Thank you for the generosity and support of the Repair Fund collection held last week. $ 944.00 was contributed.

Generous Donations

Many have responded to CONNECTIONS newsletter that was sent out that included an envelope to return to the parish for the Organ Fund. One more household has donated an additional $150.00 toward the installation expense of our “New” organ. This brings the total to $3,850.00. Please consider giving toward this special fund.

LITURGICAL MINISTERS

Thank you for being so faithful in your service to Holy Cross. We are grateful for your dedication and generosity.

There will be a meeting for Lectors on Tuesday, November 6, at 6:30 p.m. in the Rectory Offices. Besides reviewing the guidelines, each lector will receive his or her Lector Workbook. The cost for the book is $12.00.

Eucharistic Ministers will meet on Tuesday, November 13th, at 6:30 p.m. in the CHURCH. At that time, you will receive the latest diocesan guidelines for Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist.

If you have any questions, please contact Sister Anne at 224-3416. Thank you.

THE WORD

One of the temptations in having younger siblings is the felt need to remind them of their place in the family “pecking order,” especially when it comes to certain privileges that belong to the eldest sibling(s). Every social, political, or family group has “elders,” either by age or rank, who claim certain privileges as their due. Another way to put this is “lording it over others.”

Jesus works to undermine this approach to community life. He has been teaching his disciples that he must suffer, die, and then, be raised to eternal life. He has just finished telling this to them for the third time when James and John come up to claim a seat at his right and left when he comes into his kingdom. After all, they were among the first to be called! No wonder the others were about to throttle them – not because James and John should not have made such a claim, but because they beat the others to it. It’s hard to give up “lording” when the opportunity arrives.

The Letter to the Hebrews speaks of Jesus as the great high priest able to sympathize with us in our weaknesses, similarly tested, yet without sin. This Jesus calls us to service, warning us, as he did the disciples, against lording it over one another and making our authority felt. We too are to follow him in the way of service and self-giving, caring for our brothers and sisters, humbly and without regard for award.
