Bishop’s Annual Appeal – Results

BAA Campaign for 2013 is progressing well. The committee has received 70 pledges for $31,507.00, which is 195% of our 2013 goal of $16,185.00. Since we have reached our goal, every $ pledged and paid over goal comes back directly to the parish to help pay for the new church aisle wooden flooring. And by the way – free from Diocesan 5% tax!!

We are also asking every parishioner (and guest) to participate in this year’s appeal. No gift is too small. Thank You!

Mission Co-Op Appeal – Today!!

Fr. Jose Manickathan will conduct a mission appeal this weekend for his ministry that he shares with Fr. Ramon – The Congregation of the Sons of Immaculate Conception. Please be generous.

Due to the Mission Appeal, our Repair Collection will be delayed to Sunday, July 14th.

THE WORD

From the beginning, spreading the word about the kingdom of God was at the top of Jesus' priority list. he began his own ministry preaching that the kingdom of God was near, indeed, "at hand." The good news of God's presence in the world was the primary work given to his apostles when he sent them out. Later, as Luke records, Jesus sent out seventy-two others. And after he had risen, He commanded all disciples to do this until the end of time.

Jesus' directives to the seventy-two are still practical: travel light, don't dawdle, bring peace with you, don't fuss over accommodations, eat and drink what is offered. Their work was to heal and preach. If there was no interest, move on. One might wonder whether more could have been accomplished if they had not been paired up, but anyone who goes out armed only with the gospel realizes how good it is to have companionship in this important work.

Pope Francis is calling for all Catholics to participate in a "new evangelization," one marked by a new ardor, new methods, and new expressions. Consider ardor. It means having zeal, fire, passion. Ardor flows from joy. The Church's joy as the new Jerusalem comes from knowing we are saved by Christ's death and resurrection. By our baptism, we are part of a new creation. Now is our time to witness to Christ, sharing our faith in Jesus, and knowing he is with us, as the head of his Body, the Church.

– Do you accept the calling to be one who witnesses to the gospel and participates in this mission of the Church?

– Does your love for Jesus Christ enable you to talk about him and what he means to you, when the opportunity presents itself?
