Bishop Annual Appeal – Results

BAA Campaign for 2013 is off with a great start. The committee has received 56 pledges for $28,216.00 which is 174% of our 2013 goal of $16,185.00. Since we have reached our goal, every $ pledged and paid over goal comes back directly to the parish to help pay for the new church wooden flooring. We are also asking every parishioner (and guest) to participate in this year’s appeal. No gift is too small. Thanks You!

Repair Fund Collection Results!

Thank you for the generosity and support of the Repair Fund collection held last week. $776.00 was contributed. This will help to pay for the two toilets that were recently upgraded to handicap toilets (higher elevation from the floor) with high capacity flushing mechanism. This change was recommended at the last parish pastoral council meeting.

BETHESDA HEALING MINISTRY

Sometimes memories can keep us from experiencing the fullness of new life even following the reception and graced forgiveness from the Sacrament of Penance. If you have experienced abortion in your life and the memory continues to haunt you, perhaps inviting Jesus often into that memory will open your spirit to the peace only He can give. Begin by praying “Jesus, I don’t want to be chained any longer to the memories of my abortion. Please come and heal me.” To share the graces of this journey with those who have been there contact Bethesda Healing Ministry confidential lines: 614-309-0157 or 614-309-2651.

THE WORD

Nathan’s message to King David could not have been any more pointed: God says, “I have given you all that you have, and you have taken away all that your devoted soldier Uriah had: his wife and his life.” David acknowledges his sin, confessing his guilt, and God shows mercy, forgiving him.

After hearing Jesus preach, a woman responds with repentance to His message announcing the coming of God’s reign. She comes to the house of Simon the Pharisee to express her grateful heart for all to see. Simon, however, is a harder nut to crack. As Nathan did with David, Jesus tells a story, hoping to penetrate Simon’s judgmental heart. Simon gets the point, but we don’t know whether it stays in his head without reaching his heart.

God sent Jesus to liberate people, to bring them to a fuller life. We see Jesus trying to free both men and women from what imprisons them, and to bring them out of the darkness and into the light of communion with God and with each other. We see how quickly God responds to David’s confession and how appreciatively Jesus speaks of the woman to Simon.

One hopes that Simon came to himself at some point and was able to receive the good news of God’s kingdom so near to his grasp. One hopes he came to know God’s generous forgiveness for his sins, whether many or few, great or small. One hopes he came to recognize Jesus as truly God’s prophet and Son.

– Do our “little” sins lead us to be judgmental of others?

– Do we know that no sin is beyond God’s forgiveness?
