Communication Campaign – Today!

This Sunday is the Collection for the Catholic Communication Campaign. Collection proceeds support a wide variety of media projects that spread the Gospel message and connect communities and individuals to their faith and the Church. Please contribute generously to the Collection, and visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections for more info. Remember, half of the collected funds stay right here to support diocesan media projects.

Bishop Annual Appeal – Wow!

BAA Campaign for 2013 is off with a great start. The committee has received 30 pledges for $18,653.00 which is 115% of our 2013 goal of $16,185.00. Since we have reach our goal, every $ pledged and paid over goal comes back directly to the parish to help pay for the new church wooden flooring. We are also asking every parishioner (and guest) to participate in this year's appeal. No gift is too small. Thank you!

THE WORD

I heard a noted theologian quip that we might possibly think of the Holy Spirit as the Cinderella of the Trinity because the Holy Spirit does the work while the Father and the Son get the attention. Everyone laughed – but our readings today highlight the many ways the Holy Spirit enters our lives and gets to work.

Begin with the images of the Spirit found in today’s Scripture: a strong, driving wind; hovering tongues of fire; the lavisher of languages; the giver of spiritual gifts; the breath of the risen Lord; the power of forgiveness – and these are only a few of the names given to the Holy Spirit. Turn to the Gospel of John, in which Jesus refers to the Spirit as the Paraclete or Advocate, the Teacher, the Witness.

Find the Sequence for the feast of Pentecost in a worship aid and you will discover even more insights into the role of the Spirit cast in a poetic form: father of the poor, the comforter, sweet refreshment, grateful coolness, healer of wounds, renewer of our strength. And my two favorite lines: “bend the stubborn heart and will;/Melt the frozen, warm the chill.”

The work of the Holy Spirit is to bring us to life and then to make us life-givers for others. Paul reminds us that all the gifts of the Spirit are given for the common good.

The Church was born after this mega-gift was given to a small group of disciples who were disciples of a crucified Galilean. The Spirit is truly the Gift That Keeps On Giving.

– Which name for the Holy Spirit best describes the role the Spirit has played in your life?

– What gift of the Spirit would you ask for, not only for yourself, but for the good of those you love?
