Thanksgiving Food Baskets

THANKSGIVING BASKETS

It is that time of year when we again have the opportunity to help needy families in the area by preparing baskets of food for their Thanksgiving. It is our way of expressing our gratitude for all the blessings we have received during the past year. So, please think about giving food items that would fill the baskets. We need the following: Laundry baskets, Canned goods, Grocery Gift Certificates, Turkey, Roasting Pan, Stuffing and Potatoes. In the back of church there will be lists of the needed items. Please sign up for what you can bring. The baskets will be picked up after the 11:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday, November 24th, to be distributed to those in need. Please give Sister Anne any gift certificates you might be donating. Thank You!

Bible Study

We will begin a Fall Bible Study on Tuesday, November 19th, at 7:00 p.m., in the Parish Rectory Offices and continue meeting on Tuesday evenings; November 26, December 3, 10, and 17. We will be using Liguori Catholic Bible Study Series. This study will give us a greater familiarity with the Bible’s themes, personalities, and message. But that’s not enough. This program will also teach us to use Scripture in our prayer. If interested in attending, please call Sister Anne at 224-3416 to register.

THANKS!

THE WORD

To get the full impact of the first reading, I strongly suggest you go to your Bible and read Second Maccabees, Chapter 7. You wonder what the mother of the Maccabees would have said to the Sadducees trying to trap Jesus over belief in the resurrection of the body. How would this woman, who watched the thugs of a sadistic king cruelly torture with whips and scourges her seven sons over their refusal to eat pork, ever have been able to encourage her sons to remain faithful to God's law without a belief in the resurrection? This belief was her rock. It justified her taking the long view, that their death, in fidelity to God, gives way to a bodily resurrection.

For the Sadducees, however, faith was based on the Torah (the Pentateuch). Only what was written in the Torah had to be believed. Since there is no mention of resurrection, they rejected it. And they use a story of a woman marrying seven brothers to trap Jesus. Jesus says two things in response. First, what happens in the next life is going to be different, not the same old, same old. Second, when God spoke the divine Name to Moses, God did not say, "I was the God of your dead ancestors." Rather, God said, "I am the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob." Implication: God is a God of the living – in God all are alive.

Couple that with Jesus' own resurrection and you have good reason for this hope we carry in our hearts.

– What does belief in the resurrection of the body tell you about God?

– What does it tell you about your own body? Does it have any implications for how you treat your body?

Plan for The Catholic Men's Conference

The 2014 Catholic Men's Conference will be held on Saturday, March 1st, in the Voinovich Center on the Ohio State Fairgrounds. The Voinovich Center is in the complex across 17th Street from last year's conference location.

Charitable Giving This Season

As we approach the Advent and Christmas season, a time of reflection and celebration, many of us are also considering our final charitable gifts for the year. The Catholic Foundation is happy to talk with you about a giving option that is the best fit for your family. For instance, if you are over age 70 ½, did you know that you can make a tax-free charitable gift of up to $100,000.00 directly from a qualifying IRA to an endowment fund that the Catholic Foundation manages for perpetual support to Holy Cross Roman Catholic Church? If you are an Ohio resident, this will reduce your Ohio income tax as well, because your Adjusted Gross Income will not include the IRA distribution. Gifts must be completed by December 31, 2013. Please contact Craig Heppner, Development Officer with The Catholic Foundation, at 614-443-8893 for more details!
