Sympathy and Prayers

Cecilia Fields, a friend of the parish, died recently and her funeral Mass will be on Thursday, November 21, at 12:30 p.m., at Holy Cross. Please keep her and her family in your prayers.

Eucharistic Ministers – Today!

Eucharistic Ministers will meet on today, at 10:00 a.m., in the Rectory Office. At that time, you will receive the latest diocesan guidelines for Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist.

Bible Study

We will begin a Fall Bible Study on Tuesday, November 19th, 7:00 p.m., in the Parish Rectory Offices and continue meeting on Tuesday evenings November 26, December 3, 10, and 17. We will be using Liguori Catholic Bible Study Series. This study will give us a greater familiarity with the Bible’s themes, personalities, and message. But that’s not enough. This program will also teach us to use Scripture in our prayer. If interested in attending, please call Sister Anne (224-3416) to register.

Thanksgiving Food Baskets

THANKSGIVING BASKETS

It is that time of year when we, again, have the opportunity to help needy families in the area by preparing baskets of food for their Thanksgiving. It is our way of expressing our gratitude for all the blessings we have received during the past year. So, please think about giving food items that would fill the baskets. We need the following: Laundry baskets, Canned goods, Grocery Gift Certificates, Turkey, Roasting Pans, Stuffing and Potatoes. In the back of church, there will be lists of the needed items. Please sign up for what you can bring. The baskets will be picked up after the 11:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday, November 24th, to be distributed to those in need. Please give Sister Anne any gift certificates you might be donating. Thank You!

We need YOU this Christmas!

November 24th at noon!

Singing in the choir is easy, the time commitment minimal and the rewards are many. We begin Sunday, November 24th after the 11:00 a.m. Mass and will continue to do so through December 22nd. Please grant yourself the benefit of choral singing this coming Advent/Christmas season. Contact Kelly Doman for more information.

THE WORD

People say that 9/11 changed us irrevocably, that we have lost for good a sense of being invulnerable. That dreadful day revealed we were no longer secure from the kind of violence that could suddenly turn our world upside down, shattering our well-being, bringing death and destruction, and leaving us in a world of fear, insecurity, and anxiety. Unfortunately, such experience characterize so much of human history.

The destruction of the temple in 70 A.D., an event that Jesus could see coming, was an “end of the world” experience for the people of Jerusalem. The temple was for them the heart of the city, the most sacred space for Israel, God’s dwelling place among the Chosen People. Luke’s own community also knew of the persecution and hardship Jesus speaks of today. What was important then and remains important now is a willingness to give witness to the Lord in all circumstances, even when doing so threatens our world. We too can take comfort in Jesus’ words: “I myself shall give you a wisdom in speaking that all your adversaries will be powerless to resist or refute.”

Consider Jesus’ final words today: “By your perseverance you will secure your lives.” We can take comfort knowing that if we persevere, when the Day of the Lord comes, we will be counted among the just who will experience it as the arrival of “the sun of justice with its healing rays.” In the meantime, as Paul advises, go about your lives, working quietly to bring about the kingdom of God.

– Don’t we already know the “Day of the Lord” every Sunday when Christ comes to us in the Eucharist?

– How are you called to witness to the Lord in your life?

Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD)

Next week’s collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD) needs your help. CCHD was founded to end the cycle of poverty throughout America by funding organizations that help individuals help themselves. With a tradition of improving education, housing, and community economic development, CCHD continues to make a positive impact in communities nationwide. Defend human dignity. Please give to the CCHD Collection. For more information, contact the diocesan director, Erin Cordle, at 614-241-2540 or socmailbox@colsdio.org, or go to <http://www.colsdio.org/Offices/SocialConcernsOfficefor/Programs.aspx>.

Philippines Typhoon Haiyan

Catholic Relief Services (CRS) is the official international humanitarian agency of the Catholic community in the United States. CRS teams are poised to respond to Typhoon Haiyan, a monster storm that hit the Philippines recently with sustained winds of 190 mph. CRS is working with local governments, Caritas partners, and local parishes in the Philippines to maximize the agency’s response and recovery efforts so that people who need it most get the help they need. Your support is needed. For more information, contact the diocesan CRS director, Erin Cordle, at 614-241-2540 or socmailbox@colsdio.org, or go to the CRS website at <http://crs.org/>. Donations may be sent to the diocesan finance office at 198 East Broad Street, Columbus, OH, 43215, with “Philippines” in the memo line.
