LITURGICAL MINISTERS

Thank you for being so faithful in your service to Holy Cross. We are grateful for your dedication and generosity.

There will be a meeting for Lectors on Tuesday, November 12, at 7:00 p.m. in the Rectory Office. Besides reviewing the guidelines, each lector will receive his or her Lector Workbook. The cost for the book is $12.00.

Eucharistic Ministers will meet on Sunday, November 17, at 10:00 a.m. in the Rectory Office. At that time, you will receive the latest diocesan guidelines for Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist.

If you have any questions, please contact Sister Anne at 224-3416. Thank You!

Repair Fund Collection – Today!

A second collection will be taken for the repairs on the church and rectory. We thank you in advance for your continuous support of this program since this will help defray some of the cost associated to pressure clean and tuck-point the rectory brick facade completed recently to meet the City of Columbus Code.

Support to St. Lawrence Haven – November 17

Attention all our “Lil Larry” sandwich makers. November 17 is our next opportunity to support St. Lawrence Haven

THE WORD

The beautiful opening words from the book of Wisdom slide easily from a poetic proclamation of the scale of creation before God (“Before the Lord the whole universe is as a grain from a balance or a drop of morning dew come down upon the earth”) to a hopeful acknowledgement of the true strength of its creator (“But you have mercy on all, because you can do all things; and you overlook people’s sins that they may repent.”).

The story of Zacchaeus never fails to bring a smile. The man up a tree is plucked like a ripe apple to relieve God’s hunger for lost souls. As the head tax collector, Zacchaeus was probably motivated to climb that tree more by fear than by his size. For a collaborator with Rome, any crowd was a dangerous place. But what went up came down a different person.

Jesus asks nothing of him. But He clearly communicated that God’s prophet wanted to be with him, up close and personal. In Jesus, Zacchaeus discovered that God truly was the Lover of souls and His response flowed easily and generously. Although the crowd grumbled, Jesus let them know that this was what He was all about: “The Son of Man has come to seek and to save what was lost.”

You could imagine how it looked as they turned towards Zacchaeus’ house, arms around each other’s shoulders, going to spend the rest of the night eating, drinking, and rejoicing in how easily someone lost could be loved back into life.

– What makes Zacchaeus respond so generously to Jesus inviting Himself to His house?

– How would you respond to Jesus coming to your house? What would you want Him to say to you? What would you say to Him?

THANKSGIVING BASKETS

It is that time of year when we again have the opportunity to help needy families in the area by preparing baskets of food for their Thanksgiving.

It is our way of expressing our gratitude for all the blessings we have received during the past year. So, please think about giving food items that would fill the baskets. We need the following:

Laundry Baskets, Canned goods, Grocery Gift Certificates, Turkey, Roasting Pan, Stuffing and Potatoes.

In the back of church, there will be lists of the needed items. Please sign up for what you can bring. The baskets will be picked up after the 11:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday, November 24th, to be distributed to those in need. Please give Sister Anne any gift certificates you might be donating. Thank You!

Bible Study

We will begin a Fall Bible Study on Tuesday, November 19th, 7:00 p.m. in the Parish Rectory Offices and continue meeting on Tuesday evenings, November 26, December 3, 10 and 17. We will be using Liguori Catholic Bible Study Series. This study will give us a greater familiarity with the Bible’s themes, personalities, and message. But that’s not enough. This program will also teach us to use Scripture in our prayer. If interested in attending, please call Sister Anne at 224-3416 to register.

We need YOU this Christmas! Starting November 24th at noon!

Singing in the Choir is easy, the time commitment minimal and the rewards are many. We begin Sunday, November 24th after the 11:00 a.m. Mass and will continue to do so through December 22nd. Please grant yourself the benefit of choral singing this coming Advent/Christmas season. Contact Kelly Doman for more information.
