MY HOUSE COLUMBUS

Pornography is any image that leads a person to use another person for their own sexual pleasure. It is devoid of love, intimacy, relationships, or responsibility. It can be highly addictive (Dr. Peter Kleponis, pornography addiction recovery, 2011). My House Columbus is here to help. My House Columbus offers a deepened understanding of the beauty of our sexuality through Theology of the Body groups. To learn more about participating in a group, please call Doug Smith at 614-371-2595. Visit MyHouseColumbus.org for more information.

Support to St. Lawrence Haven October 20

Attention all our “Lil Larry” sandwich makers. October 20 is our next opportunity to support St. Lawrence Haven following the 9:00 a.m. Mass in the Cum Christo Center.

THE WORD

The prophet Habakkuk asks God how long he (the prophet) will have to see violence, ruin, and misery. God answers with a vision to be written down and a call to wait patiently in faith. "The just one, because of his faith, shall live."

Paul sounds a call to interior action, urging Timothy to stir into flame the gift of God: a spirit of courage, energy, and action. Though separated by over six centuries, the prophet Habakkuk and the apostles Paul and Timothy faced suffering and destruction; all three responded by witnessing to their faith in the God of Israel. For Paul, this faith finds expression in fidelity to the gospel of Jesus Christ.

The Gospel answers two questions: how do we get this faith and what do we do with it in the face of trials? We get it by asking. Jesus tells the apostles it is not a matter of quantity but quality. A little faith can go a long way in producing results. While Luke's version of this saying of Jesus is less dramatic than Matthew's – with Luke, faith can uproot a mulberry tree, while Matthew has it moving a mountain – the basic point is the same.

After his response, Jesus calls them to action. Faith flowers into service. Serving Christ, especially in the least and the needy, flows from faith. The vision faith provides carries us into making this world a better place, embodying the faith, hope, and love that can transform the world.

- How have you experienced the power of faith?
- Has it helped you to get through difficult times, giving you strength to uproot any obstacle and toss it in the sea of God's mercy?
