PARISH PICTORIAL DIRECTORY UPDATE

Thanks to everyone who signed up last Sunday. We have 27 photo appointments set, and look forward to accommodating the rest of our parishioners for openings on Friday, October 11 and Saturday, October 12. We did have glitch with the online address that was listed in last week’s bulletin and we apologize for that.

Here is the correct internet address to sign up online at <http://www.appt.lifetouch.com>, that, will take you to a page where you will select the state, city and organization. Once you do that, you will be able to select the date/time for your photo session. If you have any questions about this, please email Jack Kustron at jack@photoj.com or call Jack at 443-5271.

THE WORD

“Tell me, what is it that you plan to do with your life?” It’s a good question, but also a haunting one that makes us so edgy and anxious that we wonder if our life is real at all. It’s the sort of question we’d sometimes rather not even hear, much less attempt to answer.

So, what is it that you plan to do with your life? We say we’re going to get married and raise a family. Or, we’re going to get a job that pays well. Or, we’re going to play professional baseball or football or some such thing when we grow up. Or, we’re going to retire and enjoy life. So, what is it that you plan to do with your life? There is only one life, after all; one to spend lavishly or cautiously, one to treasure or squander or hoard, one to laugh with or cry with or maybe just sit in a daze with, for sixty or seventy or eighty years. The trouble is, or perhaps more honestly the sadness is, that few of us ever answer that gentle but big question, because we don’t know.

What God did was to give away what was most precious, God’s only Son, so that we might find life. And what Jesus did was to empty Himself, so that God could fill Him with life and exalt Him. It seems that while you and I are preoccupied with finding meaning by filling our lives, the divine instinct is to empty life so that meaning might find us.
