Attention, all our "Lil Larry" sandwich makers. The next opportunity to support St. Lawrence Haven is next Sunday, July 27, 2014, following the 9:00 a.m. Mass.

Not Too Late To Make A Pledge

BAA Campaign for 2014 has received 64 pledges for $30,147.00, which is 182% of our 2014 goal. Since we have exceeded our goal of $16,564.92, every dollar pledged and paid over goal comes back directly to the parish to help pay for the new church wooden flooring. And by the way – free from Diocesan 6% tax!! We are also asking every parishioner (and guest) to participate in this year's appeal. No gift is too small. Thank You!

Good News!

The Estate of Thomas L. Schultz, a friend of Holy Cross Church, bequeathed a sum of money that will help to pay, along with our BAA funds, the new wooden flooring in the church.

This is a good example of how parishioners and friends can donate to Holy Cross Church when you name Holy Cross as a beneficiary to a insurance policy, or like instrument, or naming Holy Cross in your will.

We have had several parishioners who have done this over the years, which has allowed Holy Cross to keep up or improve the physical status of its buildings along with our monthly Repair Collection.

Confirmation Preparation

Confirmation preparation will begin on Sunday, August 3, 2014, from 10:00-11:30 a.m. for youth in Grades 6-10. The bishop will confirm these students on Saturday, September 27, 2014, at St. Ladislav Church. For more info, please contact Debi Matthews at 861-1746 or matthews9244@sbcglobal.net.

Latin America Collection – August 3rd

Although approximately half of the world's Catholic population lives in Latin America, the Church in the region is losing members at an alarming rate to other faiths or migration in pursuit of a better life. These tensions can contribute to the destabilization of families and faith communities. You can keep faith with the Church in Latin America through your support of this collection Sunday, August 3rd. Your generosity will support pastoral work that engages parishioners and fosters the faith.

THE WORD

Last week’s Gospel reading presented us with a parable about sowing. This week, we have a parable that speaks of tending the growing plants as we await the harvest. We are not to pull up the weeds, lest we pull up the crop as well; we are, rather, to await the time of harvest, at which time the weeds will be separated out. As Jesus interprets this parable for His disciples, it tells us why, for the time being, God allows evil to co-exist alongside the good in the world.

St. Augustine applied this parable to the Church. Like the world in general, the Church is a mixed bag of good and evil. Why does God allow this? Doesn’t God want us to make the Church an enclave of purity in a sinful world, eliminating the wrong-headed and half-hearted? Our parable suggests that even, maybe especially, within the Church, saints and sinners cannot always be easily distinguished from one another. Appearances can be deceiving, and someone who appears saintly can in fact be the worst of sinners and someone who seems to be a sinner could be destined by God to become a great saint. Perhaps what we at first see to be a weed might turn out to be a valuable medicinal herb.

The key here is not that God doesn’t want the Church to be holy, but that the task of making the Church holy ultimately belongs to God’s Spirit. St. Augustine thought that the presence of sinners in the Church was a small price to pay for the great good of leaving the judgment of souls to God. For it is God, as our second reading states, who is “the one who searches hearts.” In this way, the parable reminds us that in our dealings with those both outside and inside the Church we must hold to what the first reading tells us: “those who are just must be kind.”
