Support to St. Lawrence Haven – July 27

Attention, all our “Lil Larry” sandwich makers. The next opportunity to support St. Lawrence Haven is Sunday, July 27, 2014, following the 9:00 a.m Mass.

WELCOME to newly ordained

Fr. Vincent Nguyen!

Fr. Vincent served temporarily here at Holy Cross and will now be ministering as Parochial Vicar for Knox-Licking Consortium of Catholic Churches, (St. Vincent de Paul, Mount Vernon; St. Luke, Danville; and Church of the Nativity, Utica).

We wish Fr. Vincent well in his new assignment and may he know joy, hope and peace in his service to the Church. We pray that God continues to bless him abundantly.

Confirmation Preparation

Confirmation preparation will begin on Sunday, August 3, 2014, from 10:00-11:30 a.m. for youth in Grades 6-10. The bishop will confirm these students on Sunday, September 28, 2014. For more information, please contact Debi Matthews at matthews9244@sbcglobal.net or 861-1746.

Bishop Annual Appeal – Results

BAA Campaign for 2014 has received 53 pledges for $27,262.00, which is 165% of our 2014 goal. Since we have exceeded our goal of $16,564.92, every dollar pledged and paid over goal comes back directly to the parish to help pay for the new church wooden flooring. We are also asking every parishioner (and guest) to participate in this year’s appeal. No gift is too small. Thank You!

Catholic Home Mission – Today!

A second collection is scheduled today, that supports the missions here in the United States. There are many places in America – Appalachia, the Deep South, the Southwest, the Rocky Mountain states, Puerto Rico, and the island dioceses in the Pacific and Caribbean – where the Catholic Church struggles just to keep parishes open and to educate children in faith. Please plan to give generously to assist fellow Catholics in America.

Repair Fund Collection – July 6th

A second collection will be taken next week for the repairs on the church and rectory. We thank you for your continuous support.

THANKS

THE WORD

Saints Peter and Paul make an interesting pair. Peter: the impetuous one who acts first and reflects later, caught up as he is in his love for Jesus. Paul: the cerebral one who asks us to think through the implications of the love we have experienced in Christ. They represent not simply two different types of Christians, but two aspects of every Christian’s life.

The story of Peter at Caesarea Philippi shows him confessing faith in Jesus as Messiah, even though he does not fully grasp all that this means. He simply knows that, in his first-century Jewish context, this was the most exalted title he can give to Jesus. He does not yet grasp that this will mean that Jesus must suffer and die and be raised again, but time and trials will teach Peter the full meaning of the faith that he has so boldly confessed, the faith upon which the Church will be built.

While the Gospel reading presents Peter at the beginning of his life as a follower of Jesus, our second reading present Paul near the end of his life. He reflects on how his life has been poured out for the sake of the Gospel, and how God has stood by him and given him strength. Unlike Peter’s impetuous profession of faith, Paul’s is one that arises from considered reflection the path on which God has led him throughout his life. But the faith he expresses is the same as that of Peter: Jesus is the fulfillment of human longing, the anointed one who will lead us into God’s kingdom.

– Do I incline more toward the impetuous faith of Peter or the reflective faith of Paul? How might I incorporate both aspects into my faith Life?

– What does Paul mean when he says that his life is “poured out like a libation?” What would that mean in my life?

SAVE THE DATE

Special Parish Dates

Mark your calendars for the following important dates for the parish:

1) Sunday, July 27, 2014, Support to St. Lawrence Haven – Sandwiches, following the 9:00 a.m. Mass.

IMMIGRATION REFORM

The USCCB notes that this summer is a critical time in the nation’s debate on immigration reform. This is the closest position Congress has been in more than a decade to pass immigration reform. The USCCB’s Justice for Immigrants Campaign encourages the faithful to call members of Congress, visit members and staff at their district offices, and sign an electronic postcard calling for immigration reform this year. To participate, visit www.justiceforimmigrants.org.

ST. STEPHEN’S COMMUNITY HOUSE’S ANNUAL BRAVO! FOR THE CHILDREN

Event will be Saturday, July 12, 2014, at St. Charles Prep School, 2010 E. Broad Street, Columbus. Based in Columbus’ Linden neighborhood, St. Stephen’s provides child care; comprehensive services for seniors; emergency services such as food, utility, and prescription assistance; and educational and counseling resources for youth and families. The event helps support the vital programs of St. Stephen’s. Questions and ticket requests can be directed to Renea Williams at 614-294-6347, ext. 124.

RETREAT FOR MARRIED COUPLES SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 2014

The Second Annual Retreat for Married Couples will be held at St. Agatha in Upper Arlington. The retreat will feature Mass and a reflection by Bishop Campbell and presentations by Dr. Greg and Lisa Popcak. Registration begins July 1st. For more information, visit www.familylife.colsdioc.org.

Catholic Men’s Luncheon – St. Patrick’s

The Catholic Men’s Luncheon Club will NOT meet in July or August due to summer holidays and vacations. We will return to St. Patrick Church on Friday, September 5th with an intriguing presentation on “Evangelization in the Workplace!” Mark your calendar! A blessed and relaxing summer to all men and their loved ones from THE CATHOLIC MEN’S LUNCHEON CLUB!
