Mass Intentions

One of the greatest acts of charity is to pray for the living and the dead, and the greatest and most powerful prayer we have is the Mass, since the fruits of the Mass are the very fruits of Jesus’ redemption. Mass stipends (offerings) are $10.00 each; only one offering per Mass. All Mass intentions will be listed in the bulletin. We are in need of daily Mass intentions. Please contact Mike Agriesti by regular mail, or drop a note into the collection basket on Sundays or email admmike@columbus.rr.com to schedule a Mass.

THE WORD

Standing in line at the grocery store I often read the headlines on the papers being sold there. I often find them outrageous, playing on news that “sells” rather than news that is true. Our inquiring minds can be drawn to the bizarre, the flamboyant, and the extreme. This is true in the readings we encounter at the end of each liturgical year. They focus on the end-times, the signs of the Lord’s return, and how we can know when that will occur. Inquiring minds want to know. Jesus tells us not to be deceived. Even when some of the events that signal the end occur, “it will not immediately be the end.” As he indicates in another Gospel passage, only the Father knows the day and the hour, not anyone else – not even the Son.

What are we to do? We are to persevere by staying focused on the teaching and example of Jesus Christ: “By your perseverance you will secure your lives.” We are to have wonder and awe in the name of the Lord. We are to look for “the sun of justice with its healing rays.” We are to keep busy doing God’s work rather than mind everyone else’s business. We are to live each day as if it were our last, to paraphrase St. Francis de Sales. If we keep our eyes on Jesus and live his commandments each day, we will be ready whenever the end comes. The world will know justice. We will have a wisdom that our adversaries cannot resist or refute. That’s the truth, even if it doesn’t sell papers.

– How would you live today differently if you knew it was to be your last?

– Where do you find the wisdom of God and the strength to live Jesus clearly?
